

LACONI YSS General Meeting
What's Your Style?
Roselle Public Library
Friday, February 23, 2007

President Mary Adamowski called the General Membership Meeting to order at 10:00, welcomed everyone, read the LACONI YSS mission statement, and thanked the Roselle Library for hosting the program. Amy Cawley, Head of Youth Services at the Roselle library invited participants to become acquainted with the Library during the lunch break.

Board members were introduced.

The Secretary's Report was read and approved.

The Treasurer's Report was read, approved, and filed for audit, with an ending balance of $5,691.15.

Vice President Monica Dzierzbicki announced and provided highlights of the upcoming programs:

- April 27, 2007 *Beyond the Library Walls:
Outreach Services & Bookmobiles*
Palatine Public Library
- Sept. 28, 2007 *Harvest of Resources
Performer Showcase*
Harold Washington Library Center

There was no old business. There was no new business.

Monica introduced speaker Merri Monks, former MLS Youth Services consultant, who is currently working at the American College of Education. Ms. Monks, a trained Enneagram instructor, provided an interactive introduction to the Enneagram system of personality types and provided information to help participants discern their leadership style.

After an Italian luncheon, Susan Wrona Gall presented tips on fashion style which would not break the bank.

Monica again urged all attendees to fill out Evaluation Forms.

The general meeting adjourned at 2:25 p.m.

The purpose of LACONI YSS shall be to provide Youth Services Librarians, and other interested persons working with youth, an opportunity to network at three informational workshops per year. Networking will allow the sharing of experiences, discussion of problems, consideration of solutions, and a chance to promote continuing education and cooperation through topics of current interest.

