Welcoming People of Many Cultures

Carolyn A. Anthony, Director of the Skokie Public Library and former ILA President.

Learn how to help those of different cultures feel comfortable coming to the Library, and ways to reach out to meet them in the community. Two successful multicultural initiatives, Skokie Festival of Cultures and Coming Together in Skokie will be highlighted.

Evolution of A Library's ESL Service

Joyce Voss, Community Services Manager & Katalin Zsupan, ESL/Literacy Specialist
Arlington Heights Memorial Library

Find out how AHML went from being a partner with Community Education to having a full service ESL Office. Learn how collaboration, advocacy, partnerships, programming and technology all played a role in shaping its success.

Show and Share

Bring printed examples of any successful multicultural initiatives to share. We will also allow time for audience members to talk about some of their libraries' success stories.
